

SHED SHOOK'S IDEA OF IT.

COLE AS SPEAKER AND BLAINE AS THE BIGGEST AMERICAN STATESMAN.

Of the opinion that Gen. Husted has no Show and that the Bald Eagle Knows It—Low for President of the Senate—He Believes, Also, that Blaine Could Defeat Cleveland on the Tariff Question.

"So you wish to know my opinion relative to the organization of the next Legislature?" exclaimed Mr. Sheridan Shook at the Morton House this morning. "Well, I will tell you frankly that I have not bothered myself about thinking of who is to be President pro tempore of the Senate or Speaker of the Assembly."

"I have no interest whatever in the organization of the incoming Legislature, although I see that interviews with me are constantly appearing in the newspapers. Its funny" (laughing) "the way I am being quoted."

"You see I know a great many of the newspaper boys, and I meet them very often. They often interchange opinions with me, but as far as being interviewed recently on Albany matters I have not been concerned. I must say that I do not remember having been regularly interviewed."

"Sometimes I express my opinion to politicians and they quote me to newspaper men, and the first thing I know I see myself in print as the authority for certain statements."

"But you have an opinion about the organization of the next Legislature?"

"I have formed an opinion as a casual observer and on what I have heard. If you want my opinion you can have it."

"What is it, Mr. Shook?"

"Why, I think that Senator Low will be elected President pro tempore of the Senate and Fremont Cole, of Schuylers, Speaker of the Assembly."

"Then you think that Gen. Husted will not be re-elected Speaker?"

"Now, would you be surprised if I told you that I do not believe that Gen. Husted's name will be mentioned in the caucus? Really I do not believe that Gen. Husted has any chance, and I believe he knows it."

"You supported him last January for Speaker?"

"So did a good many who are not supporting him this time. As I told you before, I am not interested for or against any man for Speaker. All I know is that Mr. Cole appears to have a large majority of the Assemblymen elect in his favor."

"Have you seen Gen. Husted lately?"

"He stopped in here yesterday and chatted with me for a few minutes. Oh, yes, he seems to be confident, but he was just as confident in 1885 when he was defeated by Erwin."

Brushing aside Republican State politics, Mr. Shook remarked: "That was a great message on the tariff question that Mr. Blaine has given to the American people."

"Do you think so?"

"I do, and it shows Mr. Blaine to be just what he is—the greatest living American statesman. His opinions are very well knocked President Cleveland's message on the tariff question all to pieces."

"I am more certain than ever that Mr.
Blaine will win the next President. He can defeat President Cleveland on the tariff question."

QUARRELLING OVER AN OPERA.

An Attachment Issued Against the Owner of the "Trumpeter of Natchez."

Ex-Judge A. J. Dittenhofer, as counsel for Leo Goldmark, has secured from Judge Lawrence, of the Supreme Court, an attachment against the property of Edmund C. Stanton, owner of the opera, "Trumpeter of Natchez."

"In the suit the question of ownership of the American rights of the opera is involved."

Mr. Goldmark says that Ruppel, who does business in Leipzig, Germany, under the name of J. Schubert & Co., is the owner of the piece. He claims that on Nov. 9, 1886, Ruppel sold to him the exclusive right to produce the opera in the United States. Stanton was to receive 3 per cent. of the gross receipts.

On June 20, 1887, says Mr. Goldmark, the defendant committed a breach of that contract by entering into negotiations with Edmund C. Stanton, director of the Metropolitan Opera-House, for the right to produce the opera. In the contract he was to get five per cent. of the gross receipts. Stanton has produced the opera at the Metropolitan, and the gross receipts were $11,589.50. Mr.
Goldmark claims to have been damaged to the extent of $231.79 for which sum he claims.

HAYLIN WANTS TO FIGHT.

His Backer Deposits $200 Forfeit for a Battle with Weir or Warren.

Boston, Dec. 9.—Mr. P. O'Rourke, backer for Jack Haylin, the well-known feather-weight, called at the Herald office yesterday afternoon and, after depositing $200, said:

"This money I wish to post as a forfeit for a match with the winner of the Weir-Warren battle which takes place at Minneapolis next Wednesday. I also wish to have a challenge read from the ring when the fight takes place so the public can be satisfied if a reply is not received that the winner is afraid of Haylin."

"In case the battle is declared a draw, my challenge is open to either or both men. If either objects to my propositions, which are for a fight to a finish with skin-tight, or two-ounce gloves, for the gate receipts of $1,000 a side, then I am open to accept any fair agreement they may wish to offer."

"I don't want anything to stand in the way of a battle. It was my intention to go to Minneapolis with Haylin, and there try to get on a match, but business necessities may prevent me, unless I am assured that a fight can be arranged."

Driven Away by Her Aunt.

Frederick Hockenry, age twelve years, who was found last evening crying in Grand street, and was taken to the station, was brought to the Essex Market Police Court this morning, where Justice Duffy gave her in charge to Agent Young of the Society for Prevention of Crimes to Children.

Frederick is a very pretty and bright for her age.
She said that her aunt, Mrs. Emma Kelly, whom she was living at 302 Fifth avenue, on Thursday told her to go from her house and never come back, because the girl claimed she did not want to be in the right place. Her father lives at 1014 Broadway street, Troy. Frederick's two brothers, August, aged fifteen years, and Otto, twin brother, and Emma, her sister, are seven years, have been taken care of by the juvenile asylum of this city. The mother is dead. The society will investigate the case.

Charged With Stealing Diamonds.

Solomon Stern, of 112 West 124th street, who was arrested on a charge of stealing $1,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry from Frederick Kaufman, of 192 Broadway, was held by Justice O'Malley, in the Police Court this morning, in $1,000 bail, to answer in the Court of General Sessions. Stern obtained the goods from the Jewelry store on the pretense of purchasing them.
Detective Sergeant Kulland, who brought the prisoner from Baltimore, informed the Court that only one of the diamonds had been found.
While the statement was being made, Robert McCarthy, of 120 West 104th street, entered court and charged that Stern had given him a worthless check for $75 just before he left the city.

O'Connor Got the Worst of It.

Henry O'Connor, the ex-park policeman, of 136 Monroe street, who was arrested last night on a charge of assault on Park policeman Henry Dwyer, was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court this morning. Dwyer said he was followed by O'Connor and assaulted. The officer failed to show any mark of violence, except a slight tear in his uniform. O'Connor, on the contrary, had his eyes discolored, a bruised nose and other injuries, which he (Dwyer) had inflicted with fist and club. Several witnesses gave evidence in favor of the prisoner and he was released.

ALL ABOUT
Riker's American Sachet Powder AND MORE, TOO.

All the materials from which this wonderful Sachet Powder is made are grown entirely in conventories at Menlo Park by Edison's Electric Light, watered by "Ocean Spray." It is manufactured on golden tables with onyx tops (from Conover's), by the wealthiest ladies in the world in evening costumes (by B. Altman & Co.) of Heliotrope Satin and Rose Silk, cut pompously on the bias, with violet overstitching, trimmed with Lilies of the Valley and ten-button gloves made of "Pau de Espanne."

Gentlemen who use the Sachet Powder rise five feet six in the station of their "Best Girl" and dream they own the earth and two or three "Jim Bell" suits of clothes. Ladies who use it prefer it to one of C. G. Gunther's Suits $1,000 worth of garments, because they always marry millions immediately, and thus have both. It cures Consumption, Asthma, Dyspepsia, "Bright's" and all fatal diseases, including a fall from a 12-story flat or a Railway collision. It sweetens the breath and preserves the teeth, thus beating the best Dentist in New York (Dr. G. Evans, No. 133 West 34th st.) out of a job.

It eradicates Freckles, Dandruff, Croton Bugs, Book Agents, Tramps and everything.
It never fails to grow a luxuriant crop of any colored hair you want on a baldy-bald head aged 70. It keeps the hair from going to Sing Sing school, and all the "boys" up in Canada took a stock with them when they Sachet-ed from here. It makes a woman of 98 look like a "blooming idiot"—no, we don't mean that, like a blooming girl of 16 Falls.
It permeates the house and everything in it with the delicate and refreshing odor of Hunter's Point.
